

Rachel Britton is a British-born author, speaker, and blogger. Her passion is to help others become comfortable and confident in their conversation with God. Her most recent book Pray Naturally: Finding Your Spiritual Confidence as a Woman Loved by God released January 2025 with Our Daily Bread Publishing. She is represented by Books & Such Literary Agency. She is a contributing author in a number of traditionally published books, Guidepost publications, and online with Bible Study Tools. Rachel is the creator and writer of an Amazon Alexa skill app: "Alexa, say a prayer," which receives approximately 1,500 requests per day.

Rachel holds a Masters in Religion with a concentration in Theology from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. Rachel is a member of the Advanced Writers and Speakers Association and Redbud Writers Guild. She is Director of reNEW ~ spiritual retreat for writers and speakers held annually in the northeast which she operates through her non-profit organization, Rachel Britton Ministries. Rachel has served on ministry staff to women at a large non-denominational church in Massachusetts and worked as a professional Christian speech coach.

Rachel has lived in the United States since 1995. Her career began in newspaper and magazine publishing in London. She worked for BBC Worldwide before moving to the USA. Rachel is married with three young adult children spread over too many time zones. She loves to escape to the mountains of Colorado to write, hike, and ski. She blogs on prayer regularly at her online home rachelbritton.com